DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) The invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-5, 8-11, 44, 46, 47, 49, 50, 53-58, and 61-63 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by United States Patent 5,445,608 Chen et al.

Chen discloses the same invention being a dissection tool comprising a handle (236), an arcuate shaped elongated dissection member (262), a battery (abstract: 8-6), a switch, and a light source (234), comprising a LED (abstract: 4-5) and a power line.

In regards to claims 8-11 and 61-63 Chen further discloses 2 fluid channels (254) and (258) adapted to transport an irrigation fluid and a pharmaceutical (antibiotic) agent (8:27-34 and 9:47-51) shown in Fig 17.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 10/6/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The applicant argues that the device disclosed by Chen is not a dissection tool because it is left in the body for too long. However, this is all intended use. The device of Chen meets all the claimed structural requirements, which do not include a time limit for insertion into the body. The applicant also argues that Chen discloses an infrared light source not a LED, which is not visible to the human eye. However, Chen clearly discloses the use of both a LED and infrared light sources throughout the specification. For example in claims 21-23 of Chen he clearly is claiming the use of a LED or an infrared light sources.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
